

The Ramsey Family

Inside this issue:
“I came so they can have real and eternal life, more and better than they ever dreamed of.”

Jesus speaking in John 10:10 (The Message)

Pray that:

- We would trust God for our future plans within the ministry
- Details would come together for a HQ-wide training that I am coordinating for April 13th
- God really uses us with the people on the baseball team

Praise God for:

- Showering his grace on us, even when we aren't experiencing it
- Strong community with fellow CCC staff
- Providing a really good fit here with our family and work

Changed Lives from BeyondTheUltimate.org

Millions of people tuned in to the biggest sports event of the year—the Super Bowl. With football as the platform God used the coaches and players of the two teams in significant ways.

This ad was published in the USA Today by Athletes in Action (AIA), a division of Campus Crusade for Christ. Through this type of mass media outreach more than 250,000 folks viewed the site. 1,300 people indicated decisions to receive Christ! And more than half of them are now going through a basic follow up. It is quite amazing how God uses people in sports to spread his fame.

My role here helps to develop staff from AIA and other Campus Crusade ministries to be sent into the spiritual harvest. It is a privilege to partner with hundreds of staff this way, enabling each of us to be more effective stewards of what God has given.

Love,
Jeff, Renea and BJ

BEYOND THE ULTIMATE

THEY made it to the TOP of the FOOTBALL world. But there's MORE...

"A personal relationship with Jesus Christ is the only way I've found true peace, joy and forgiveness." - Tony Dungy

"At a young age, I called on God to help me. I have leaned on Him ever since." - Love Smith

On Sunday, one of us will be a world champion. It's the ultimate goal — but we know that there is more to life than football. Even when you have achieved the ultimate, something better lies beyond.

We're pro football coaches, but we are also men of faith. A faith that defines who we are. It comforts us in tough times and produces hope in the midst of adversity. It is through our common faith in Jesus Christ that we have individually experienced God's love and forgiveness.

“...I Feel God’s Pleasure” - Eric Liddell

“When I run I feel God’s pleasure.” These words were spoken by Eric Liddell, the Olympic athlete that Chariots of Fire is about. A couple of years ago this got me thinking—when do I feel God’s pleasure?

Many of you know that I played baseball at IUP through my first year of college. Now after more than a 10-year break I have just come out of retirement. :) There is a local 28 and over city league here that I joined a few weeks ago. We play once a week and I very much feel alive when I’m playing.

Renea is deeply supportive of me and I appreciate her. She and BJ come to games when they can. BJ even has a little T-Ball of his own he likes to throw around!

Playing also gets us knowing more people in the community to share our lives with. Please pray for us and the 15 guys on the team. That means a lot. Thank you.
