

The Ramsey Family

Inside this issue:

I am sure that nothing can ever separate us from God's love. Neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither our fears for today nor our worries about tomorrow—not even the powers of hell can separate us from God's love. Rom. 8:38, 39

Pray that:

- Mom's chemotherapy continues to go well
- This keeps drawing the family closer together
- We stay strong in the Lord's power (Eph. 5)

Praise God for:

- Shaping our character in trials (James 1)
- All who are praying for Mom & helping with her care
- A growing time with family the last few months

OUR FAMILY'S UPDATE

"Having the whole family in for the holidays was a mom's dream", said Sandy Ramsey. Since Thanksgiving mom has responded well to the chemo treatments which we thank the Lord for. The cancerous fluid buildup has stopped substantially. Jan. 10 is her next treatment.

Though she doesn't have the physical strength she is used to, her inner strength has certainly deepened. Pray that God continues to intervene in her chemotherapy and use this mightily in all of our lives.

Our Family Medical Leave of Absence expired last week and so we returned to Orlando. My father and sister (Lyndee) remain to share the main load of mom's care. To have left was bitter sweet. While it is nice to be back in a routine with family & work we can't help but wonder how 2008 will go. So we remain honest with and dependent on God to lead our hearts step by step in the process.

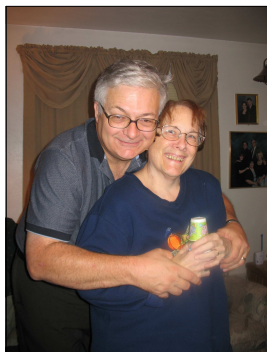

Thank you dearly for your concern, prayers, & encouragement during this time.

Love,

Jeff, Renea, & BJ

WHAT CANCER CANNOT DO AUTHOR UNKNOWN (TO US ANYWAY)

It cannot cripple love, it cannot shatter hope
It cannot erode faith, it cannot eat away peace
It cannot invade the soul, it cannot silence courage
It cannot shut out memories, it cannot reduce eternal life
It cannot quench the Spirit, it cannot destroy confidence
It cannot kill friendship, it cannot lessen the power of the
