Inside this issue:

Peter asked, “Master, how many times do I forgive my brother or sister who hurts me? Seven?” Jesus replied, “Seven! Hardly. Try seventy times seven.”

Matthew 18:21-22

STORYRUNNERS HIGHLIGHT (ADAPTED FROM STORYRUNNERS.COM)

In India, four men drove a tractor down a treacherous mountain road. The tractor tragically flipped, killing one man and injuring two others. An uproar ensued as the driver was thrown in prison.

The village council had heated talks about what to do with the driver. They then asked three prominent brothers for their input.

One brother, Abraham (right), had been learning the bible stories simply by hearing them in his own language. Even though he was not following Christ he still saw the significance in these timeless stories.

So when the time came to discuss the incident at hand Abraham took center stage. He told the group about Jesus teaching Peter to forgive your brother indefinitely. He also shared Jesus’ priority of having a clean heart. His peers were drawn to his words. Because of this they forgave the tractor driver!

About StoryRunners

How do you communicate the Good News with 4.5 billion who can’t read? You do what they do—tell stories. Coincidentally, telling stories is what Jesus did in his ministry too (Matthew 13:34).

Through partnerships with churches and mission agencies, StoryRunners trains teams of near-culture believers to live and work among unreached people groups. These national believers are equipped to share dozens of various biblical stories over time. Churches are planted as a result. The responses have been quite amazing! Read more inspirational life-changing stories at storyrunners.com.

Abraham might not have spoken up had he not heard of forgiveness. How different might this world be if everyone had the opportunity to know the God who forgives—no matter whether they can read or not?

Pray that:

- God continues to use people like Abraham
- New believers get grounded in the Lord, his Word, & his church—this is vital

Praise God for:

- Softening peoples’ hearts to truly “hear” what he’s done for us
- Changing lives amidst the barriers
